THREATENED MARSHALL, SAYS PUAHI

Witness for Prosecution Gives Testimony That Is Welcome to Counsel for Defense

SAYS GUERTLER UTTERED
OATH AND THREAT TO KILL

Proprietor of Hula Resort Tells of Incidents Leading Up to Killing Last August

That Charles R. Guertler, brandishing his arms menacingly and rushing upon John W. Marshall, uttered an oath and exclaimed: "I'll kill you!" was the sensational and apparently unexpected feature of the testimony of Madam Puahi, one of the principal witnesses for the government in the Marshall murder trial in Judge Robinson's court this morning.

She told this story on direct examination and immediately City and County Attorney J. W. Cathcart sought to develop by a series of questions the fact that Madam Puahi, proprietress of the hula house in which Marshall shot Guertler, had not told of the latter's threat either in her testimony before the coroner's jury last year or in her interview with the prosecutor last Friday, when he was preparing the present case. Counsel for the defense were visibly elated when her statement was made clear.

Madam Puahi was on the witness stand the greater part of the morning. Giving her version of the events which transpired at her hula house on Kapehulu road the night of August 10 last, following Marshall's second visit, she said she admitted him to the main dance hall, wherein Guertler and his party, together with C. F. Drew, Marshall's friend, were being entertained. Marshall, she asserted, told her he had returned to get Drew and take him home, and asked her to call Drew. Marshall remained near the door while she went to the opposite end of the hall and whispered to Drew. The man paying no attention she finally pushed him in Marshall's direction.

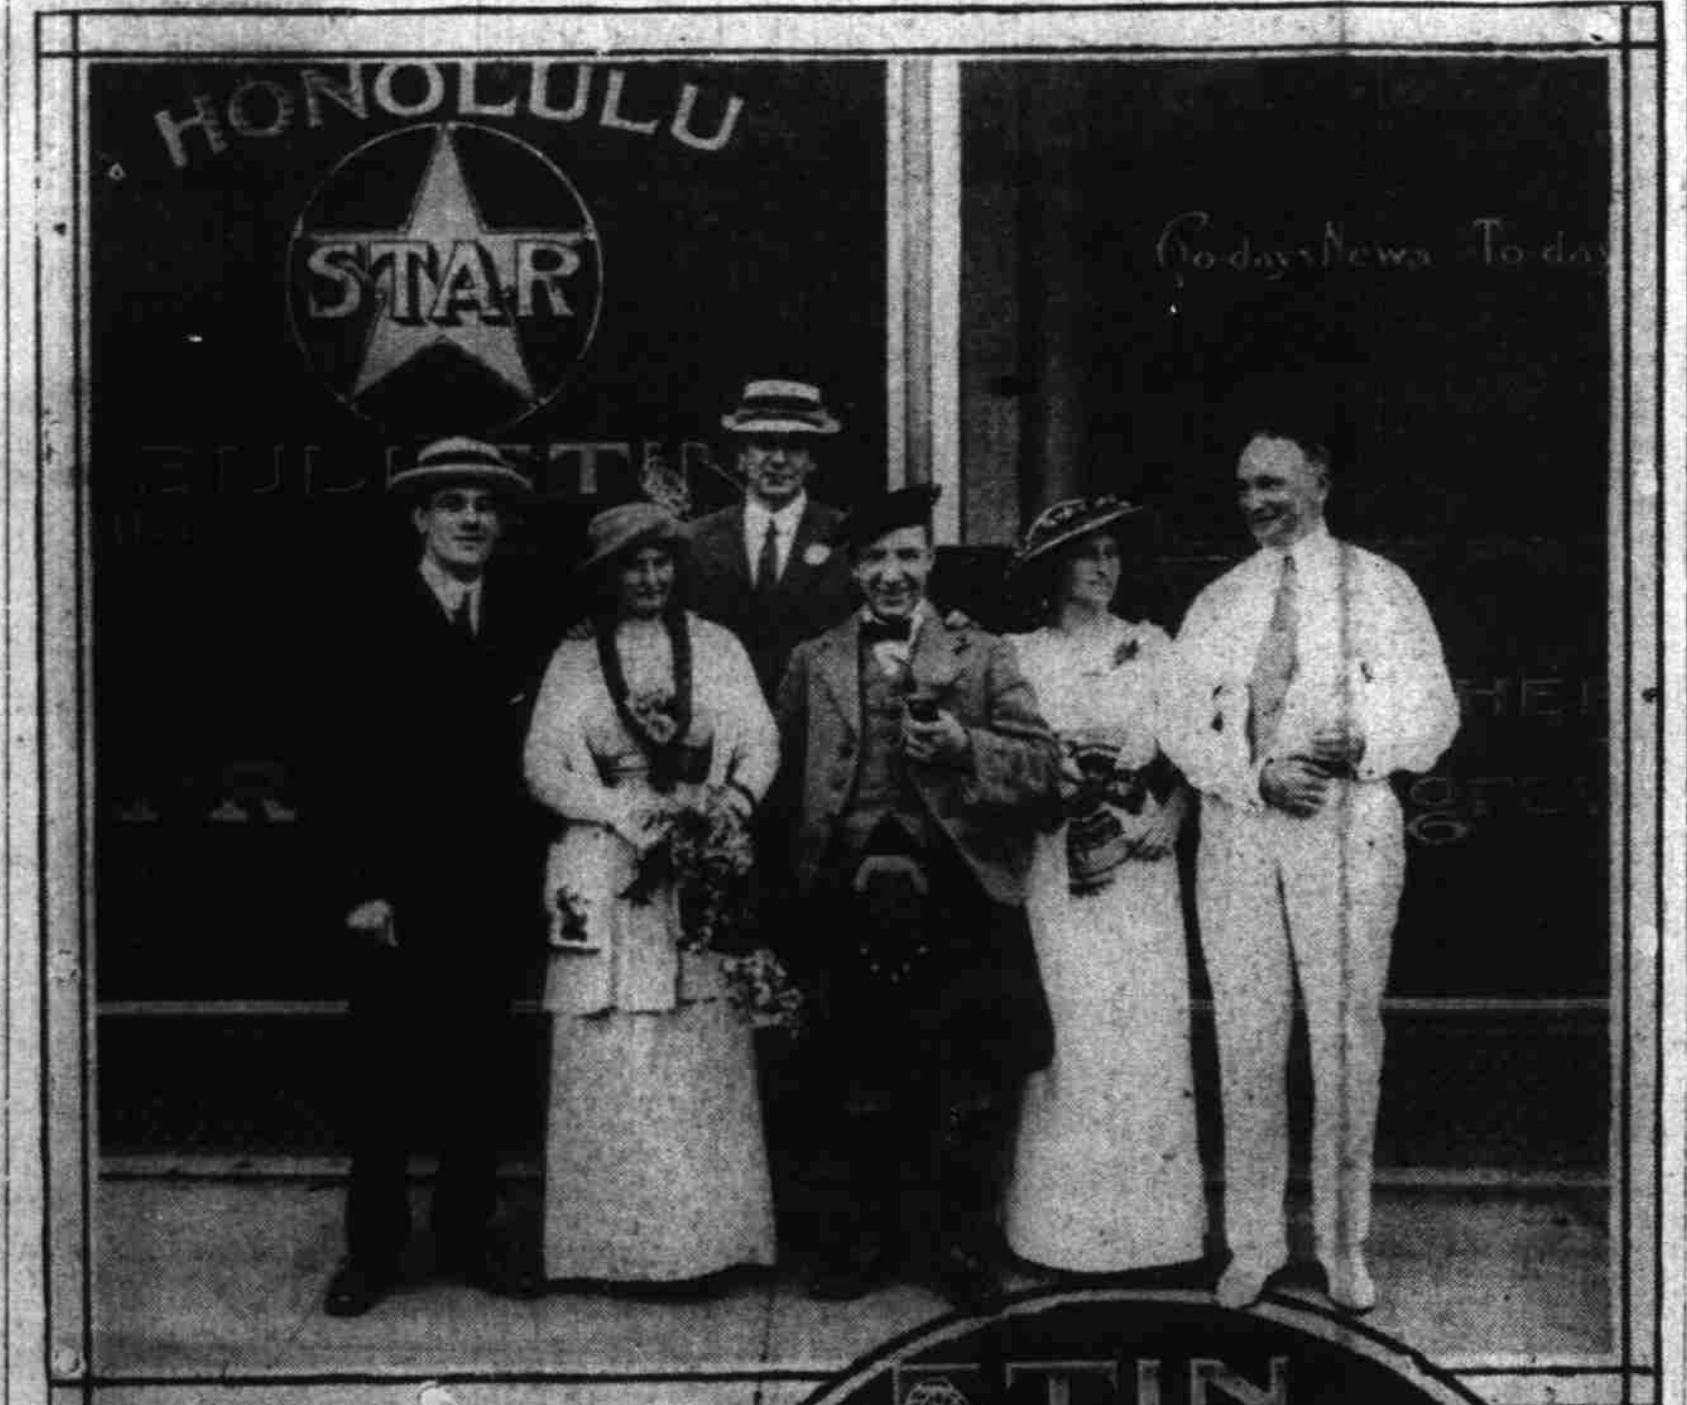

When Drew reached Marshall the latter told him to get his hat and accompany him. Marshall—home, whereupon Drew returned to the Guertler party and, according to Madam Puahi, told them:

"Marshall is here again and I'm going home with him." Then, said the witness, the crowd made a rush down the hall toward Marshall. She grasped Guertler by the arm and tried to hold him back, but paying no attention he hurried forward, waving his arms, swearing and exclaiming: "I'll kill you!" When he uttered the words Madam Puahi said she was standing directly in front of him, with her hands on his shoulders, trying to push him back, but his strength was so great that he apparently did not notice her. He was within three feet of Marshall, the witness said, when she heard the shot. She did not see Marshall shoot, but she saw Guertler

HARRY LAUDER SCATTERS SMILES AND SILVER

Famous Scotch Comedian and His Wife Guests of Ad Club

Visiting Celebrity and His Wife
Elected Members—Fun
at Luncheon

Harry Lauder—no need to tell who he is—for six hours today was a visitor in Honolulu, and in those six hours he scattered smiles and laughter—and a good bit of silver—wherever he went.

During those six hours the Scotch comedian and his wife were whirled around the city by auto, with the Ad Club doing the honors. At noon they were the guests of the Ad Club at one of the most notable affairs the club has ever given.

Two hundred and twenty-five members of the club sat down to luncheon on the top floor of the Young hotel and there ensued more than an hour of gay fun and merriment. The climax of it all was when Mr. Lauder, with an accent as broad as his smile, climbed upon a chair in response to cheers and shouts and gave the assembled company a half hour of keen enjoyment and sincere appreciation of mingled comedy and earnestness—for Lauder can be gravely earnest when he wishes.

Decorated with beautiful leis, in token of the Ad Club's good wishes, Mr. and Mrs. Lauder were also elected to honorary membership amid cheers that rang through the long dining-room. Their appreciation was voiced by Mr. Lauder in the course of his informal talk.

It was just after the noon-hour

WILDER TOO FRANK; THAT'S WHY HE LOST

Talked Straight from Shoulder to Powers in Washington City

HE EXPRESSED HIMSELF
FREELY ON APPOINTMENTS

Neither President Nor Attorney-general Especially Delighted Thereat

(Since the Star-Bulletin's Washington correspondent forwarded the letter published below, the name of R. P.
Quarles has been sent to the senate
as the nomination for the second supreme court vacancy.)

By C. S. ALBERT.
(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 5.—The nomination of Edward M. Watson to be an associate justice of the Hawaiian supreme court raised a question here that has provoked much discussion. Will Arthur A. Wilder receive the other position for which he was recommended by Governor Pinkham? An impression has been prevailing here that possibly Judge Wilder has lost out. The nomination of Mr. Watson was sent in alone. The endorsement of both was made at one time by Governor Pinkham. The suggestion is made that President Wilson would have forwarded both names to the senate unless Judge Wilder was out of the race. It is argued that Attorney-general McPherson would have followed the same course and sent the two names together from the department of justice to the White House.

When in this city recently Judge Wilder visited the president and the attorney-general. He expressed himself freely on the necessity of something being done for the Democratic party in Hawaii. Neither of these officials was especially delighted with the utterances of Judge Wilder. He was too frank.

Up to this time no positive information has been furnished at the department of justice regarding the status of Judge Wilder's candidacy for the Hawaiian supreme bench. It became self-evident that the nomination of Wilder would be postponed for some time, if sent in at all.

M'CHESNEY IN FAVOR OF SITE FIRST PLANNED

In Letter to Merchants' Association, Renews Suggestion
for Federal Building

In a letter to President Farrington of the Merchants' Association, J. M. McChesney urges the erection of the federal building on the original Mahukona site. He says:

"Honolulu, March 14, 1914.
"Mr. W. R. Farrington,
"President Merchants' Association.
"Dear Sir:

"Referring to an interview in the afternoon paper wherein you urge concerted action by the people of Honolulu to get the long drawn out U. S. government building, I desire to call your attention to a suggestion of mine made through the daily press over a year ago that we work for a building on the site at first condemned and paid for already, bounded on three sides by King, Bishop and Merchant streets, to be used as a postoffice and a custom house, and later work for a judicial building to be placed on the Irwin site. Will not the present vacant lot be large enough for present needs? I believe we all agree that

Dr. Pratt's Visit to Kohala Causes Guessing in Hilo

(Special Star-Bulletin Wireles)
HILO, Mar. 16.—The Mauna Kea made a special stop at Mahukona to land Dr. J. S. B. Pratt, it being presumed here that there are health troubles in that section. Donald S. Bowman, chief sanitary inspector for this district left here Sunday for the Kohala district to meet the board of health executive. All that is definitely known is that Dr. Pratt journeyed to Kohala to get two immigrants.

No statement could be obtained at the office of the board of health regarding Dr. Pratt's sudden trip to Mahukona, except that he is engaged in a matter of quarantine and that he will return tomorrow. "You will have to see Dr. Pratt on his return for a better reason for the trip," said one of the officers of the board this morning.

The woman was arrested, but Dr. Devon believed that she had been punished sufficiently and refused to prosecute.

Mother Jones is Deported to Denver From Hospital Prison

(Associated Press Cable)
TRINIDAD, Colo., Mar. 16.—Mother Jones was quietly deported to Denver last night, having been a military prisoner in the hospital since she was deported from the strike zone. General Chase says the deportation was in line with the request made by Mother Jones that she be taken to Denver.

Says She Will Return to Strike Zone
DENVER, Colo., Mar. 16.—Mother Jones states that she was forcibly deported and that she did not have any idea where she was being taken. She says she anticipated returning to the strike district despite threats that have been made of rearrest.

WATSON REPLACES DEBOLT ON BENCH, SAYS M'REYNOLDS

Department Justice, Washington, D. C., Mar. 14-15
Please cable vacancy Watson appointed to fill.

"L. E. PINKHAM,
"Governor Hawaii."
Governor Pinkham, Honolulu, March 16-14.
"Watson appointed vice DeBolt."
"M'REYNOLDS."

The above exchange of cables, made public today by the governor, is self-explanatory, also showing that Attorney E. M. Watson is not appointed to the place for which the governor recommended him. Governor Pinkham had recommended Watson to succeed Associate Justice Antonio Perry of the territorial supreme court. Instead, it is evident that Judge R. T. Quarles has been nominated for that position, Watson taking the vacancy left by the expiration of Associate Justice

John T. De Bolt's term. It is understood the change made at Washington will have little, if any appreciable effect on territorial matters, however. The commission making Watson a member of the supreme court is thought to be enroute from the national capital now.

Special Officers Chilton and Ferry today are seeking the rider of a spirited horse, who is alleged to have caused the accident to Samuel Schacklett, on motorcycle No. 235, which may result in fatal injuries to the young man. Schacklett is an inmate at Queen's hospital and has been unconscious since yesterday afternoon. When in attempting to get out of the way of the galloping horse, he was forced to run his machine into a curb and upon a sidewalk along Kalakaua avenue. Schacklett was hurled against a telephone pole, scalp wounds and other bruises being inflicted. Circle Bohde, who was riding tandem on the machine, stated to the officers that he believed that he would be able to identify the man who drove the animal at a furious rate down the avenue, at that time badly congested with traffic.

LITTLE LOVE GOD AGAIN PICKS HONOLULU AS WEDDING SCENE

Dan Cupid, who of recent years has acquired a hobby of selecting Honolulu as an appropriate matrimonial setting, scored another coup this morning with the arrival of the Sonoma.

As Miss Fay Milburn, prominent in society circles in New York and Washington, D. C., stepped off the gangplank accompanied by her mother, Mrs. John P. Miller, she was met by 2d Lieut. R. L. Gaugler of the 4th Cavalry, Schofield Barracks. And a romance, which had its beginning one starry evening last June under the trees on the campus of the United States Military Academy at West Point, will end in a wedding at 4 o'clock this afternoon when the couple are married in the Catholic cathedral by Rev. Father Valentin.

"Of course it was all very sudden, but I don't know whether or not you could call it a romance," said Miss Milburn this morning at the Young hotel. "But can you imagine a more beautiful place than Honolulu to get married in?"

Dan Cupid was right on the job at West Point that evening. It was the eve of Lieutenant Gaugler's graduation; there was a ball and people from miles around were in attendance at the brilliant function. Among them was Miss Milburn who, by the way, had just graduated from Glen Eden Seminary on the Hudson. By some mysterious coincidence they met, and danced. But they sat out one dance under the trees on the campus, and when they parted that evening they were very well acquainted.

Then Lieutenant Gaugler departed for Honolulu, and Miss Milburn and her mother went back to Washington. The voluminous correspondence between the young people soon was started, but there was one letter, especially, of which the lieutenant eagerly awaited an answer. It came and—to make the story complete—the answer was in the affirmative. In response to another letter from the lieutenant, Miss Milburn started on her 5000-mile trip to join her husband-to-be, accompanied by her mother.

Following the ceremony this afternoon, Lieutenant and Mrs. Gaugler will enjoy a brief honeymoon at Haleiwa, following which they will be at home at Schofield Barracks.

When Lieut. Roland Lewis Gaugler, U. S. A., was sent to Honolulu, just after he and Miss Fay Milburn had become engaged, he was crestfallen.

That was some months ago. Miss Milburn was rather downcast, too, but she remained in the capital and hoped against hope that the war department would find some post nearer home for her fiancé. But, apparently, there was no change in sight, so she obeyed the impulse prompted by Cupid, and started on a 5465-mile journey to Honolulu.

Miss Milburn is the daughter of Frank P. Milburn, architect.

As one of her girl chums in Washington explained it, Cupid, in Miss Milburn's case, positively refused to be outdone by Mars, who rudely had the bridegroom-elect transferred far away from home.

Miss Milburn is a Washington girl, and was graduated from Glen Eden Seminary, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., last April. She became engaged to the youthful officer soon afterward. During the summer, she accompanied her parents to Europe. She participated in several entertainments of the younger set in Washington during the holidays.

Mr. Milburn, father of the bride-elect, said the young couple would make their home in Honolulu for the present.

WITH RECORD CROP MEANS SPEEDY OLAA PLANTATION SHOWS A DEFICIT PROMOTION FOR CAHU OFFICERS

Report of Manager Eckart
Tells of $74,124.68 Loss
During Past Year

With the best crop in the history of the plantation, the Olaa Sugar Company last year suffered a loss of $74,124.68, according to the statement submitted to the shareholders at the annual meeting which is being held this afternoon in the offices of Bishop & Co., the agents.

Manager C. F. Eckart in a short report indicates that the plantation is in reasonably satisfactory condition, though the estimate for this year is 4500 tons under last year's crop. The report follows:

"Gentlemen:—I beg to submit herewith the following report of your company for the year ending December 31st, 1913:
"Crop 1913. The harvesting of this crop was started on January 6 and completed on October 18, 1913, and yielded 27,897,897 tons of sugar from 6835.67 acres. This not only represents the largest crop taken off by this plantation, but also the highest production per acre, namely, 4.08 tons. The sucrose content of the cane was abnormally low, averaging 12.52 per cent as compared with 13.19 per cent for 1912.
"Crop 1914. The area under this crop is 5303.71 acres, of which 734.70 represent plant cane and 4569.01 ratoon. The estimated production is 194,700 tons cane, or about 23,300 tons

Army Reorganization Plan Will Be Hailed with Delight By Local Men if Adopted

Officers of the mobile army on Oahu are anxiously awaiting further news of the proposed reorganization of the infantry, cavalry and field artillery arms. The creating of new regiments would mean quick promotion for everyone, especially infantry officers. Private advices indicate that there is a good chance of the new measure going through.

The war department has prepared a plan of reorganization of the army that has, it is believed been approved by a majority of the members of the senate and the house. The plan is a radical departure from the existing organization, and it is believed that the department has perfected it largely because of the present strained conditions between this country and Mexico. The total number of organizations now authorized by law in the mobile army are 30 regiments of infantry, 15 regiments of cavalry and six field artillery regiments. Beyond the continental limits of the United States the following forces are required: Thirteen regiments of infantry, three and one-third regiments of cavalry and two and one-half regiments of field artillery. This leaves in the United States proper but 17 regiments of infantry, 11 2/3 regiments of cavalry and three and one-
